

"We are excited to be involved with the Read For 2001 event. As lyric and songwriters, reading is something that is very important to our trade. The enjoyment we get from reading books, newspapers, and magazines is something we are grateful for every day, especially during long airplane rides, waiting around at concert venues, and taping television shows!"